This fall, have your little one help you with daily chores! Rake leaves together and talk about how big or small the pile of leaves is. When cleaning up the dishes, count each plate as you rinse and dry them. When putting away toys, sort them by shape or size! #TalkingIsTeaching

For a fun fall activity, find a pinecone from your local park. Then, with your child, add peanut butter to the edges of the pinecone using a spoon or popsicle stick. You can then hang the pinecone on a string outside your window and watch as birds come to visit! "What color are the birds? Which one is your favorite?" #TalkingIsTeaching

As summer turns into fall, the days begin to get shorter. This is a great time for your little one to go stargazing at night before bedtime! Talk about the stars you see in the sky and make up your own constellations together! #TalkingIsTeaching

During a walk with your child, challenge your little one to hop from one crunchy leaf to another! Talk about how loud each leaf is, all while keeping your child active! "That leaf was really loud! How loud do you think the leaf over there will be?" #TalkingIsTeaching

During the fall, many animals and critters come out to play! Talk about the animals that you see while out and about. "Look, there's an ant on the sidewalk, and there's a squirrel by the tree! Can you find any other creatures?" #TalkingIsTeaching

During the fall, the weather can start to get cooler! You can turn this into a learning moment with your little one by asking, "How has the weather changed?" Then, talk about what clothes you wear when it starts to get cold! "How can we stay warm in the fall?" #TalkingIsTeaching

Write down the ABCs and, with your little one, try to think of fall-related words for each letter. "A is for apple, B is for baking, C is for corn!" This fun activity is a great way for your little one to learn about the ABCs and what the letters of the alphabet sound like. #TalkingIsTeaching
