“Let's Talk about Being Thankful” – Family Activity

Talk with your child about the things and people you are thankful for. Start by sharing what you are thankful for. Then ask your child: “What are you thankful for?” Throughout the month, write the things you’re thankful for on the leaves below and collect them in a small jar or basket.

For more tips and information, please visit www.talkingisteaching.org.