Talk, read, and sing with your children every day! Simple interactions like the ones below can help boost children’s brain and language development, setting them up for success in school and beyond. Please share photos of your family talking, reading, and singing using the hashtag #TalkingIsTeachingTips.

1. Spend time playing outside with your child and enjoy the sunshine. Encourage your child to look, smell, feel, and listen to the things around you!
2. Sing the song “You Are My Sunshine” with your baby as you cuddle together before bed.
3. Talk with your little one about the sun and sky. Ask, “How does the sun feel? What else can you find in the sky?”
4. Look up to the sky and use your imagination! Ask, “What shapes do you see in clouds in the sky?”
5. Talk with your child about the sun’s shape. Say, “The sun is round. What other things are round?”
6. Did you know? The sun is the one star we can see in the daytime. Share this fun fact with your child and ask, “What else can we see in the daytime?”

7. Enjoy a picnic in the park! Snack on healthy foods with your little one and talk about the colors, textures, and tastes together.
8. Self-care is important! You can better care for your children when you take the time to take care of yourself.
9. Share a book with your child. As you read, ask questions like: “What do you see? What’s your favorite page?”
10. As you’re driving or riding the bus, talk about the colors of traffic lights and what they mean—red means stop, green means go.
11. During bedtime, hold your baby close and sing a lullaby. What’s your favorite song to sing together?
12. Take turns showing each other different faces and use words to describe them: “We’re smiling because we’re happy!”

13. Have fun singing a silly song about your day with your baby!
14. Take a walk in your local park and talk about the colors, shapes, and sizes you see around you.
15. Play peek-a-boo while getting dressed! Ask, “Where are you?” as you pull a shirt over your baby’s head. Then say, “There you are!”
16. During bath time, use words like “sink” or “float” to help your child experiment and learn new words.
17. During snack time, sing about food and make fun food rhymes like “banana fanana”!
18. Everywhere you go, use words to talk about what you see and what your baby is looking at or pointing to.

19. Share a nursery rhyme with your child today. Use your hands and body to bring the words to life!
20. Use words to describe how food tastes or smells. Ask, “What does this apple feel like? Taste like? Smell like?”
21. Sing “Old MacDonald” with your child, and change the animals on the farm to other animals or objects you see in your home!
22. Sing songs like “Five Little Monkeys” that have simple counting patterns to help your child learn early math skills.
23. During bath time, play fill and dump with a cup. This teaches your child about measurement concepts like full and empty.
24. Sing songs about your child’s day with your baby! Make fun food rhymes like “banana fanana”.
25. As you help your child get dressed, talk about colors of his clothes. You can say: “Your socks are red and soft!”
26. During bath time, play fill and dump with a cup. This teaches your child about measurement concepts like full and empty.
27. Your baby loves to hear the sound of your voice! Talk about what you’re doing and name objects around you.
28. At the grocery store, describe the food you put in your cart using words like big, tall, wide, or tiny.
29. Books can help children develop empathy! When reading together ask questions like: “How do you think the character feels?”
30. As you do laundry, describe the clothes you’re folding. “This shirt is humongous! What else can we find that’s humongous?”
