

LET'S TALK, READ AND SING ABOUT BOOKS!

BOOK AND VIDEO RECOMMENDATIONS FOR YOUNG CHILDREN

BOOKS

Lola Reads to Leo

By: Anna McQuinn

Lola helps her parents prepare for new baby Leo's arrival and helps them care for him after he arrives. One way they care for him is read together.

The Best Place to Read

By: Debbie Bertram, Susan Bloom

A determined boy tries to find the perfect place to curl up with his new book in this heartwarming story. From bedroom to den, from kitchen to backyard, our eager reader dodges his baby sister's messes, a lawn full of spraying sprinklers, and more—all in a quest for the best place to read!

Reading Makes You Feel Good

By: Todd Parr

This book showcases all different ways that reading can make you feel good. With simple text and fun illustrations, the author explains all the different kinds of reading that people do from reading signs for information to reading fairy tales for pleasure.

Comin' Down to Storytime

By: Rob Reid

That's all the little barnyard animals need to hear to send them flocking to their librarian, who has some song-singing, nursery-rhyming fun in store for them. Set to the tune of 'She'll be comin' round the mountain when she comes' this book is fun to sing or read!

Baby Bear's Books

By: Jane Yolen

What's the best time of day for reading? Well, for Baby Bear it's all day long. From the wake-up book to the last bed-time book—and all the adventures in between—each book takes Baby Bear somewhere new and exciting.

Read with your child every day!

Reading a book or telling a story to your young child every day – in whatever language you feel most comfortable – can inspire a love of books and words and better prepare your child to learn in school. Point to the pictures, letters, and numbers in books with your baby. Ask your toddler open-ended questions as you share the book together. "What do you see? How do they feel? What's your favorite page?"
