

LET'S TALK, READ AND SING ABOUT NIGHTTIME!

BOOK AND VIDEO RECOMMENDATIONS FOR YOUNG CHILDREN

BOOKS

The House in the Night

By: Susan Marie Swanson

This bedtime book is a verse about the light in the house at night. The beautiful illustrations make this book a classic.

Bats at the Library

By: Brian Lies

A group of fun loving bats have a free for all in the library at night!

Little Owls Night

By: Divya Srinivasan

A curious little owl goes on an adventure where he meets many nocturnal animals and experiences the sights and sounds of the nighttime.

The Forest Sleeps

By: Calee M. Lee

Children will enjoy saying "sleep tight" to the animals in their natural habitats in this gentle sweet book.

Owl Babies

By: Martin Waddell

Three owl babies wake up in the night to find their mother gone. Is she hunting? Will she ever come back they wonder? Turns out they had no need to worry.

VIDEO

Write a nighttime lullaby with your little one!

Singing together before bedtime is a great addition to any nighttime routine. Plus, it can boost children's early brain and language development! Learn how to create a lullaby from singer-songwriter and mother Emily Eagen through this video we made with Carnegie Hall.

Watch at <http://talkingisteaching.org/resources/how-to-write-a-lullaby-video>.

For more tips and information, please visit: www.talkingisteaching.org

