

LET'S TALK, READ AND SING ABOUT MUSIC

BOOK AND VIDEO RECOMMENDATIONS FOR YOUNG CHILDREN

BOOKS

Bedtime for Baby Shark: Doo Doo Doo Doo Doo Doo
By: John Bajet

Children will love this colorful bedtime book featuring this fun, popular song. They can sing along with baby shark as he gets ready for bed.

Amazing Me!
Sing!
By: Carol Thompson

Join a group of diverse friends as they sing, dance, dress up, and make music. This fun story, a companion to Amazing Me! Music! celebrates every child's creativity and natural musical talents.

The Itsy-Bitsy Spider

By: Editors of Studio Fun International

Join Lili the spider and Ricky, Nicky, and Kiki the chicks in this colorful book filled with adorable illustrations. Children will love singing along to the fun song, the Itsy Bitsy Spider!

Heads, Shoulders, Knees and Toes

By: Annie Kubler

Singing songs is the perfect way to bond with your baby and promote important early language skills. While singing this fun song, touch and name your baby's head, shoulders, knees, and toes!

Amazing Me! Music!

By: Carol Thompson

This heartwarming board book celebrates how amazing we all can be...we can make music, sing and dance! Join in with an inclusive group of friends as they express their creativity through music.

VIDEO

How to Write a Lullaby

Music is a wonderful way to bond with your baby and singing also helps build your child's vocabulary! For a new special family tradition, make up your very own lullaby and sing it to your little one during bedtime. Learn how to easily create your own lullaby with tips from singer-songwriter and mother Emily Eagon. Watch the video here.

For more tips and information, please visit: www.talkingisteaching.org

